Our Mistresses of Ceremonies

Michelle Miller

As an entertainer and actor, Michelle Miller has been performing for over 20 years. Her music highlights include performances with the Jacksonville Jaguars, American Music Jubilee Theater, PBR Tour, Concert on the Green, Orlando Magic and USO events. She performed and co-produced the USO 65th Anniversary Celebration, which starred Ed McMahon, and Mickey & Jan Rooney.

Michelle enjoys staying busy filming commercials, corporate films, recording voiceovers, and serving as professional host/emcee. Highlights include Griffin Lincoln Mercury, Stewart Lighting One, Kossak Companies, American Home Builders, Annie OAKley's, Sunbelt National Music Video, WJXT Auctioneer & HBO movie "Recount".

Being no stranger to the pageant community, she has served as Jacksonville Miss TEEN, Florida Miss TEEN, National Top Ten Finalist, Miss Florida Community College at Jacksonville, and Florida Azalea Queen. Proudly calling Jacksonville home, Michelle is represented by First Coast Talent Agency.

Candace O'Steen

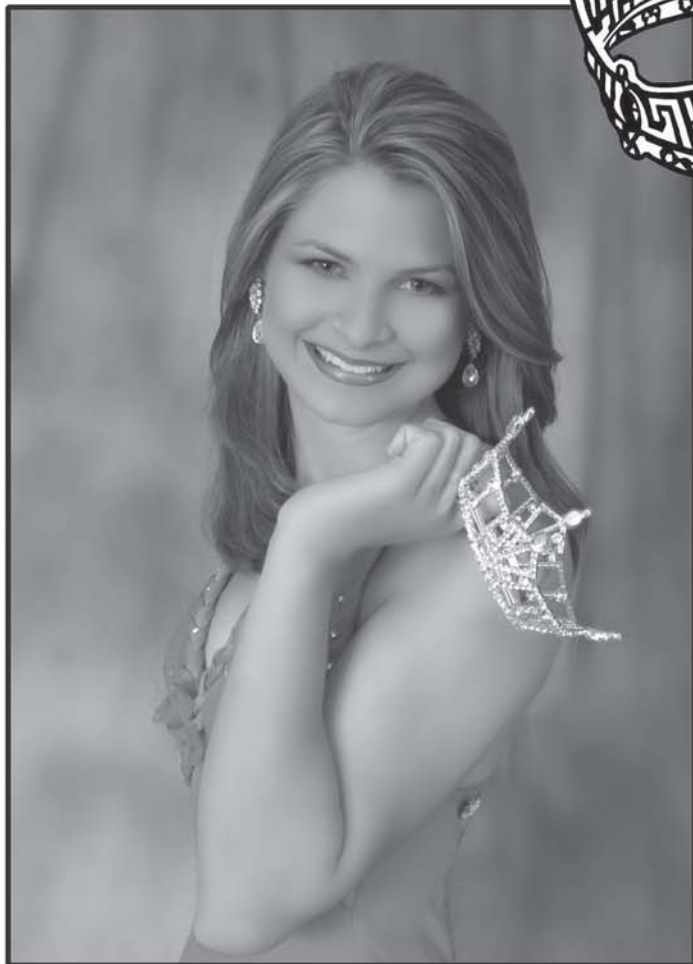

Candace Osteen is a Starke native and has been involved with pageantry for 10 years. She has been involved in every aspect of pageantry from competing to coaching and even producing.

She was a part of the Miss Florida Organization for 4 years and competed with the titles Miss Mandarin, Miss Ocala Marion County, Miss St. Augustine and Miss Jacksonville. She is a graduate of Florida Community College at Jacksonville and is currently finishing her Bachelor degree at the University of North Florida.

Candace is a newlywed and is loving every minute of married life.

Director

Good evening ladies and gentlemen, and welcome to the 2008 Miss Jacksonville and Miss River City and Outstanding Teen Scholarship Pageant, sponsored by the Jacksonville Scholarship Foundation, Inc. We wish to extend a very special thank you to all the civic-minded businessmen and businesswomen who have supported the pageant this year. It is only through your support that the pageant is able to successfully continue.

If you, our audience appreciate them as we do, please support the businesses in this program book. Finally, we thank you, the patrons, for being with us tonight. We sincerely hope you find the pageant as enjoyable as we enjoy putting it on for you.

Our Panel of Judges

Fred Ryan Hunter

Fred Hunter is a Management Consultant working with professionals and business organizations as a business mentor and coach. Fred graduated from Washburn University, Topeka, Kansas receiving a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree. Fred has directed, produced, and judged numerous Miss America Local Preliminary scholarship pageants in Kansas, Georgia and Florida for over 10 years. He served three years as a Regional Field Director for the Miss Kansas Scholarship Pageant. In addition, he served three years as a Kansas Delegate to the Miss America Scholarship Pageant in Atlantic City, and four years as a Delegate to the Miss Florida Scholarship Pageant. Fred and his wife Sandy will be delegates to the 2008 Miss America Pageant in Las Vegas. He is an active Board member with the Miss Tallahassee/Miss North Florida Fair/Miss Capital City, Miss Gulf coast scholarship programs serving as their Director of Business Relations. Fred is a qualified Miss America judge.

Gayle Hart

Gayle is presently the Director of Marketing for the Greater Jacksonville Agricultural Fair and Expo Center. Ranked among North America's 50 largest fairs, it draws nearly 500,000 people to downtown Jacksonville over a 12 day period every fall.

Currently serving as President of JAXMAC (Jacksonville Marketing and Advertising Club), Ms. Hart has won international recognition by winning the Outstanding Media Campaign twice from the International Association of Fair and Expos Annual Convention in Las Vegas. In addition, she has accumulated 22 first place awards from the Florida Festivals and Events Association for the Greater Jacksonville Fair media campaigns.

A native of Midwest City, Oklahoma, Gayle has a B.A. from Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Technical Theatre and English. Prior to living and working in Jacksonville, Gayle worked for Ballet Oklahoma under the artistic direction of Edward Villella.

Gayle has lived in Jacksonville with her husband Erik (executive Director of the Florida Theater and their three sons, Chuck, Russell and Derek, since 1987.

Virginia Crawford Denmark

Virginia Crawford Denmark began her association with the Miss Florida Pageant as a contestant. Holding four local titles, she twice placed in the Top Ten at Miss Florida and also was awarded the Hostess Award, which was the Miss Florida Hostess' choice for Miss Florida. Virginia reigned as Miss Alachua County, Miss Jacksonville, Miss Jacksonville University and Miss Olustee Festival. A magna cum laude graduate of Jacksonville University, Virginia uses her Communications degree in their family-owned business CellRite.

Virginia volunteers with the Sunshine Princess Program during Miss Florida Pageant week. Her daughter, Victoria, has twice been a Miss Florida Sunshine Princess, and was also an Inaugural Miss America Outstanding Teen Princess. A high point in Virginia's judging experience was having the privilege to judge Miss Florida Kylie Williams when she won her Miss Tallahassee title. Virginia enjoys developing fundraising projects for the children's school. She and her husband Terry have four children: Dusty, Ashley, Victoria and Preston. They are very active in their church and community.

Ilona Hagen (Conway)

Ilona Hagen (Conway) is no stranger to the Miss America Program. She celebrated her 25th anniversary of her crowning as Miss Indiana 1982 this year. Her pageant experience allowed her to compete in the National Sweetheart Pageant in Hoopston, Illinois, where she was chosen as Miss Congeniality in 1980, and first runner-up in 1981. Ilona was also a part of "The Queens" Department of Defense tour, which included semi-finalist, Bobbie Eakes, Miss Georgia. This group traveled and performed at military installations in Iceland, Germany, the Netherlands, and the Azores. She has also judged, performed, or acted as Mistress of Ceremonies at various pageants in Indiana, Kentucky, and Florida. She was a judge at the local pageant of Ericka Dunlap who went on to become Miss Florida and then Miss America!

Having been away from the pageant scene for awhile, Ilona has been concentrating on her career. She went back to school and received her teaching certification from Nova Southeastern University in 1999. For the past seven years she has been teaching fourth grade students at a Title I elementary school that her own children attended. In 2004, Ilona was selected as "Teacher of the Year" at her school and went on to be named one of the five finalists for "Clay County Teacher of the Year". She currently resides in Orange Park, Florida, with her husband, Dan, and children, daughter Jordan (17), who will be a senior, and her son Jacob (15) who will be a sophomore.

Pamela E. Adams

Pamela Adams is a native Floridian, a graduate of Lynn University with a degree in Business and Marketing. She lives in North Palm Beach, Florida, with her husband, Charles Adams. For the past 35 years, she and her husband have owned and operated South Palm Construction, a general contracting company. Mrs. Adams is a licensed Florida Real Estate Broker and a former flight attendant for Delta Airlines. She is presently a Trustee and the Chairman-elect for the South Florida Fair and Exposition.

Mrs. Adams is a former President of the Junior League of the Palm Beaches. She has been involved with The Miss America system for 15 years. Mrs. Adams is experienced in dance and has performed and taught classical ballet. She was the travel companion for Miss Florida and had the privilege of accompanying Ericka Dunlap when she was crowned Miss America in 2004.

NORMA STORMS - REGIONAL DIRECTOR

Norma resides on Amelia Island and serves on the Miss Florida Board as Field Director which includes pageants in the Jacksonville area. She received her Bachelors Degree from Florida Southern College, where she graduated as Valedictorian. She has a Masters Degree in Personnel and Guidance. She has been involved with the Miss America Pageant system for nearly twenty years. During this time she has helped many contestants prepare for competition; she has judged numerous pageants and has served as an Executive Director for a local pageant. She is proud to be a part of the Organization that is considered the largest source of scholarship opportunities for young women in the world.

To Grandma's Angel
Habrielle L. Butler

I HAVE A FRIENDLY ANGEL

*I have a friendly angel that lives here with me,
She's about as friendly as an angel can be.
She watches o'er my footsteps and guides me down the path,
That is best for me to go, to avoid God's wrath!
She loves to be warm and cozy and comfortable it seems,
She even likes to watch TV and be part of my dreams.
She's sometimes loud and noisy in the middle of the night,
Strange sounds we hear, we can't explain, when she comes 'round at night.
She protects this household from unseen dangers I know,
She's always there to help me out, when 'er I'm feeling low.
She goes with me in my car, on trips wherever I go,
I always take her with me, she's there, this I know!
Now some of you may think I'm really out in the cold!
Others may say, she sure sounds mighty bold!
But, consider it from my point of view, if you take the time,
Wouldn't you rather have an Angel, than think you're losing your mind!!!!??!!*
